No Foolin' --- He's Telling Us Times Do Be Tuff!

Torles, Alta.
Dear Sir—In reply to your recent, and more recent, and more recent requests to send you a cheque, I wish to inform you that the present shattered condition of my bank account makes it impossible for me to take your requests seriously.

My present financial condition is due to the effect of dominion and provincial laws, municipal laws, country laws, corporation laws, liquor laws, traffic laws, bylaws, brother-in-laws, sister-in-laws, mother-in-laws and outlaws, all of which have been foisted upon an unsuspecting public.

Through these laws I am compelled to pay a business tax, sales tax, amusement tax, gas tax, excess tax, hydro tax, auto tax, and syn-tax.

In addition to these irritating taxes I am forced by the strong arm of the law to get a permit for this thing and a permit for that thing. I am required to get a business license, a city license, a town license, a village license, a provincial license, a sign license, a dog license, a motor license, a radio license, a liquor license. And not to mention a marriage license.

I am also required to contribute to every society and organization which the inventive genius of man is capable of bringing into life: to the society of the Women's Relief, the Near East Relief, the Unemployed Relief, and the Gold Digger's Home; also to the Red Cross, the Black Cross, the White Cross, the Green Cross, the Purple Cross, the Flaming Cross and the Double Cross.

For my safety, I am required to carry life insurance, liability insurance, burglary insurance, property insurance, damage insurance, rent insurance, fire insurance, plate glass insurance, compensation insurance, accident insurance, collision insurance, rain insurance, hail insurance, and business insurance.

The government has now so governed my business that it is no easy matter for me to find out who owns it. I am inspected, expected, introspected, suspected, disrespected, examined, re-examined, informed, required, summoned, fined, commanded, and compelled, until all I know is that I am supposed to provide an inexhaustible supply of money for every known reason, desire, or hope of the human race, and simply because I refuse to donate to each and all, and to go out and beg, borrow or steal money to give away, I am cursed, discussed, boycotted, talked to, talked about, lied to, lied about, held up, held down, and robbed until I am nearly ruined.

I can tell you honestly that failing a miracle, you won't be paid just now, and the only reason I am holding to life is to see what the heck is coming next.

Moved by Mr. Vesey that this court of revision hear no appeals that were received after the allotted time, section 308, M.D. Act 1926. Carried.

Court of revision declared closed.

Moved by Mr. Burton that the report of Mr. Archibald be shorted of P. Selstad, 1931 time, be accepted and brought up later under accounts to be passed on. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Blakley that the report of Mr. Burton be Jerome relief.

Moved by Mr. Archibald that Mr. Burton be retained as a committee regarding relief for Mrs. Jerome.

all this matter is closed and that the committee report at each council meeting. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Vesey that the matter of McLean and the S.E. 16-45-8 re shipment of municipal district of Battle River, No. 423, consigned grain be left over until December council meeting. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Archibald that this council extend the agreement of Jas. A. Bell for the purchase of the S.W. N.E. and N.W. 20-44-9, due November 1st, 1932, to November 1st, 1933. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Blakley that in consideration that T. H. Berchett pays the current taxes on the N. 1-2 17-44-9, this council will extend the agreement with H. H. Essington for the purchase of said land until November 1st, 1933. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Vesey that in consideration that Geo. Clapp pays the current taxes and one year's interest on the N.W. 10-44-9 that this council will extend the agreement for the purchase of said land until November 1st, 1933. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Blakley that in consideration that W. Adams pays the current taxes and current interest on the S.W. and N.E. and N. 1-2 of N.W. 4-45-7, this council will extend the agreement for the purchase of said land until November 1st, 1933. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Dalton that Mr. Smallwood, Mr. Archibald and Mr. Vesey be appointed as a committee to investigate the proposition for a public road through the W. 1-2 3-45-8, W. 1-2.

For the motion—Smallwood, Dalton, Archibald and Vesey.

Against the motion—Blakley and Burton. Motion carried.

Moved by Mr. Smallwood that the matter of the N.W. 28-45-9, and the N. 1-2 of N.W. 28-45-8 be taken up with Mr. Purvis on Friday, October 14th, by the secretary and to act after receiving advice for collection in full. Carried.

Moved by Mr. Blakley that the secretary write the Credit Foncier re Walker and S.E. 10-46-7, that this party has advised this municipality that he is unable to make any payment per his agreement February 15th, 1932, for the consolidation of arrears of taxes, also that this municipality expects certain payments of November 10, 1932. Carried.

Credit Means Debt

Much is being heard these days in criticism of Governments and banks, and proposals of many kinds are advanced having as their object the "reform" of the banking system, the "curtailment" of the powers of banks, the "socialization" and the "nationalization" of banking, money and credit; the gold standard is attacked on the one hand and defended on the other; bi-metalism is advocated; while on the other hand, while others argue that present inflation means ultimate "deflation" and future trouble. Drastic writing down of present indebtedness, even complete wiping out of debts, is demanded in some quarters, while others claim a policy of "repudiation" and the destruction of future credit.

Present criticism of the banks rests primarily in the fact that, at the present time, the banks will not extend credit. If people today could go to their bank and borrow as readily and as largely as they could and did in 1928 and 1929, much of the criticism now heard of the banks would die out. It is because they cannot borrow, and in thousands of cases have no employment and so cannot earn, while in the case of farmers, prices are so low that there is less rather than profit on their production, that people, already in debt, are bitterly critical of the banks.

Critical over what? Because the banks will not extend credit to them. In other words, the banks will not allow these people to get further into debt to them. So much is being said about banking credit—using it, expanding it, contracting it,—that the average person is likely to have a confused idea as to what banking credit, or any kind of credit, actually means. And as most of us are just average persons, and particularly where financial and economic terms are concerned, it is perhaps well to reduce credit to its simplest and safest terms, and see what we make of it. Credit means debt. No matter at what angle we may view it, it means either immediately or prospectively, an obligation assumed, a debt to be paid. We borrow or buy on credit today and pledge ourselves to pay on some future day. This is true whether the transaction involves a dollar payable within a month or a million dollars payable in a score of years, and it is equally true whether it be an individual, a corporation, a municipality, a province or a nation. The principle is the same, no matter what the circumstance.

Our major difficulties today arise from the fact that there was too much credit, not too little, available to us in the past. It was easy to borrow; still easier to buy on the deferred payment, or installment plan. Everybody was doing it. The nations of the world fought a great four-years war on credit, destroying cities, industries, shipping, millions of productive human lives; blowing it all away with high explosives, and promising to pay the huge bills incurred at some future time. Farmers bought more land, more implements, combines, tractors, trucks, automobiles, radios, etc., etc., on credit; the workmen and salaried people in the towns and cities bought houses, and furniture, and automobiles, scores of things they regarded as necessities and other scores which were luxuries on credit. Salesmen urged the people to buy on credit, and every credit used meant a debt contracted.

Our major difficulties today arise from the fact that there was too much credit, not too little, available to us in the past. It was easy to borrow; still easier to buy on the deferred payment, or installment plan. Everybody was doing it. The nations of the world fought a great four-years war on credit, destroying cities, industries, shipping, millions of productive human lives; blowing it all away with high explosives, and promising to pay the huge bills incurred at some future time. Farmers bought more land, more implements, combines, tractors, trucks, automobiles, radios, etc., etc., on credit; the workmen and salaried people in the towns and cities bought houses, and furniture, and automobiles, scores of things they regarded as necessities and other scores which were luxuries on credit. Salesmen urged the people to buy on credit, and every credit used meant a debt contracted.

What was then the future is now the present, and we are called upon to pay. And that's the chief trouble today,—we have got to pay, and we don't like it. Nay, more, we have awakened to the fact that it is now well nigh impossible to pay, because we used up more credit, and thus created more debt, than our resources now enable us to pay.

Credit is an expensive thing. It also is an illusive thing, a will-o'-the-wisp to the unwary and thoughtlessly venturesome. But the debt created,—and remember debt is always created by credit; you cannot have one without the other,—is not illusive; it is a hard, concrete fact. No matter what your credit may be, it is no more, if you are wise, than your capacity to pay the debt which is the use of that credit.

Present debts cannot safely be disposed of by apparently simple procedure of wiping them out by legislative action, or through the artificial process of inflation. Repudiation would be destructive of future credits which, within reason, are essential to the carrying on of the world's business, because all credit is merely confidence; destroy confidence by acts of repudiation and you destroy credit. On the other hand, inflation beyond normal, ultimately means deflation back to normal. If the pendulum swings to the extreme right, it will have to swing just as far to the left before it gradually reaches a normal position. These are laws of nature which no legislation in the world can override.

Nor can present indebtedness be liquidated by more credit, which only means more debt, or a transfer of debt from one source to another. Debts once contracted must be honorably and honestly discharged. In some cases, in no doubt a goodly number of cases, adjustments must be made in order to prevent maximum losses by both debtor and creditor, but in the majority of cases debts ought to be paid through frugal living, practised economies, painstaking work. Having enjoyed what credit bought for us, we must now pay for that credit. Because we did not know how to use credit wisely when it was obtainable, we are now realising what it means to pass through the slow, laborious and generally painful process of paying our debts.

Suffered A Severe Attack Of Dysentery

Mr. P. L. D. Moulard, Vernon, B.C., writes:—"Last Summer I suffered from a severe attack of dysentery. I tried nearly everything on the market, without getting any relief, until a friend told me to use Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, which I did, and I got immediate relief. Now I am making it a rule to always keep a bottle of it in my medicine chest. "Wild Strawberry is sure relief for dysentery, colic and diarrhoea, but I always see I get the genuine 'Dr. Fowler's'."

An Unusual Damage Suit

Belgian Actor Claims £500 For Loss Of Beard

For the loss of his beard, which was shaved off in a French prison, a Belgian film actor, M. de Nery, is claiming £500 damages from the State.

The beard, a luxuriant growth, was of great commercial as well as aesthetic value, M. de Nery declared because it enabled him to play important parts in which a patriarchal appearance was required.

He bases his claim for compensation on the fact that while awaiting release after completing a sentence for fraud, he was sent by mistake to the penitentiary at Fresnes and subjected to the same regime as criminals who were required to be clean-shaven, instead of remaining simply under detention, as he was entitled.

Money is scarce yet she has pretty clothes

"You always look as if you had just stepped out of a fashion sheet. Yet money is so none too plentiful with you. How do you do it?" the neighbors were always asking Mrs. Burnette. One day she told them. "My secret of pretty clothes is simple. When my dresses, blouses and underthings become faded with much washing, I renew their color beauty by a simple rinsing in Diamond Tints. These wonderful tints are made by the makers of Diamond Dyes which you know are the best dyes made for dark colors. Diamond Tints are for light shades. They need no boiling and they last through repeated launderings. All you need do is to rinse your things in Diamond Tints. You can get such lovely shades by using them. So you see," said Mrs. Burnette, "pretty clothes are as easy for you to have as for me."

Less Butter Produced

Falling Off In Creamery Butter Production For August

The production of creamery butter in Canada in August, amounted to 24,706,968 pounds, compared with 30,182,925 pounds in the preceding month, and 27,806,505 pounds in August, 1931. Nova Scotia and New Brunswick have increased their production, but from Quebec to the Pacific, production has decreased. The largest percentage reduction was in Saskatchewan, which is down 24 per cent, compared with last year. These figures were released by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

Health cannot be looked for in the child that is subject to worms, because worms destroy health by creating internal disturbances that retard development and cause serious weakness. Miller's Worm Powders expel worms, and are so beneficial in their action that the systems of the little sufferers are restored to healthfulness, all the discomforts and dangers of worm infection are removed, and satisfactory growth is assured.

This Method Is Simple

One Way To Combat Problem Of Soil Drifting

Soil drifting is a very serious problem in many parts of Canada, and many are the ways that have been tried to combat it. Here is a new one, and one which looks fairly promising. Spread strips of fresh manure about three rods apart. Then drive the spreader the other way across the field so as to make checkerboards. Not only does this keep the soil at home, but it catches the neighbor's soil.

Bermuda Women Pay Taxes But Have No Vote

Regret is felt in Bermuda that the question of interpretation of the word "person" was not carried to the Privy Council, as it was by Canadians, according to Mrs. St. George Butterfield, secretary of the Bermuda Women Suffrage Society who visited Montreal a few weeks ago. Women are "persons" in Bermuda, when it comes to paying taxes, but not "persons" when the elections are held, she points out. However, she said, women in her country were basing their hope for enfranchisement on election of younger men to the island parliament at the general elections next year.

It was at least 30 years since the woman suffrage movement began on the island, when the question was raised by a woman belonging to an old Bermuda family, whose father was a member of the Council, Mrs. Butterfield recalled. The first response to the idea, she said, was "why not?" "Then reflection brought forth the suggestion that the women would be influenced as electors by the ministers. The 'why not?' raised of Church meddling with state was sufficient to turn the issue against the women.

All charitable work and beautifying the island, such as planting trees along the streets, have been done by women, said Mrs. Butterfield.

Persistent Asthma. A most distressing characteristic of this debilitating disease is the persistence with which recurring attacks come to sap away strength and leave the sufferer in a state of almost continual exhaustion. No wiser precaution can be taken than that of keeping at hand a remedy of Dr. J. D. Hero Of The Sudan

One of the last surviving heroes of the British conquest of the Sudan, Sir Rudolph Slatin Pasha, 75, died in a sanatorium at Vienna, Austria. He was an Austrian by birth. When 21 he enlisted in the British army in Egypt. He served under "Chinese" Gordon and with Lord Kitchener as chief of the British Intelligence Service, and subsequently, as the British general, Sir Rudolph Slatin, he governed the Sudan.

SOURD ON THE WORLD?—THAT'S THE LIVER

Wake up your Liver Bile —No Calomel necessary

Many people who feel sour, sluggish and full, or who are troubled with indigestion, constipation, headache, dizziness, or who are generally unwell, are suffering from a diseased liver. The liver is the largest and most important organ of the body. It is the source of bile, which is necessary for the digestion of food. If the liver is diseased, the bile is not properly secreted, and the food is not properly digested. This leads to a variety of symptoms, including those mentioned above. The liver is also the source of many of the body's hormones, and a diseased liver can lead to a variety of other health problems.

New Liner Displayed Her Seaworthiness

Came Through Terrible Hurricane In Fine Style

Graphic stories of fierce battering by storm of the steamship "Manhattan" on her second trip across the Atlantic were told when it reached Plymouth, England.

When about 150 miles out of New York the ship encountered a terrific hurricane of more than 100 miles an hour, which afforded the new ship a great opportunity for displaying her seaworthiness to 1,400 persons aboard. Captain Fried said:

"Late, of course we are late—we passed through a hurricane and had to leave. One day's run was only forty-one miles and the next fifty-two. I always said the 'Manhattan' was a great sea boat, now I know she is. She came through the ordeal in fine style."

Mrs. E. Ponchelet, one of the passengers, said:

"In winter and summer I have crossed the Atlantic, but never have I seen such seas as raged for forty-eight hours on this trip. Big as she is, the 'Manhattan' rolled heavily."

A number of persons were injured by being funged about the deck, and Jack Ponchelet, the steward, said: "Cables were torn from their lashings; settees were sent rolling about the public room in alarming fashion; there were continual crashes of crockery, a thousand pieces being broken in the different kitchens; and every now and then huge torrents of water seemed as though they would engulf the ship. There was an epidemic of seasickness and life lines had to be used to shift the passengers to and from the dining room."

New Variety Of Strawberry

Seedling Developed By Ontario Man Originated In England

A strawberry which he claims will revolutionize the industry and permit regular shipments to all parts of the Dominion has been developed by W. Duffin. "The berry is sweeter, firmer and has no green point. Its firmness will permit shipments to the west and to other parts of the Dominion," he declared. "It is the seedling of a European berry which originated in England which I had practically smuggled into the country five years ago." The new berry is registered at Ottawa and is named the Duffin berry.

Boycott Nippon Goods

Chinese Merchants In Philippines Hit At Japanese Trade

Six hundred Chinese, including many of the leading merchants of the Philippines, at a mass meeting in Manila, voted to declare a boycott on all Japanese goods in the Philippine Islands.

The mass meeting was in observance of Humiliation Day, called on the anniversary of the occupation of Manchuria by the Japanese. A boycott on Japanese goods has been in effect for months, but heretofore has been little discussed publicly by the Chinese merchants, who control three-quarters of the Philippine retail trade.

An Oil Of Merits.—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is not a jumble of medicinal substances thrown together and pushed by advertising, but the result of the careful investigation of the healing qualities of certain oils as applied to the human body. It is a rare combination and it won and kept public favor from the first. A trial of it will carry conviction to any who doubt its power to repair and heal.

Registered Stock Increasing

A review of the work of the Department of Agriculture for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1932, shows that a total of 50,700 certificates of registration were issued for live stock. This was made up of cattle, 33,288; horses, 1,734; sheep, 3,330; swine, 10,139; foxes, 21,895; goats, 7,380; poultry, 1,811; and dogs, 123.

Flouted Bad Luck

When the Thirteen Club of London held its annual luncheon recently superstition was defied in many ways. The members walked under a ladder, opened an umbrella in the room, split a hat, sat at an oval table facing ladies' shoes, and in other ways flouted bad luck.

Bishop Plays Hockey

After thrilling spectators many times with his lively sprits in a recent hockey match, the Bishop of London, who is 74, scored three goals. He was playing centre-forward for his old school, Marlborough, which clashed with Ridley public school in London.

More than 3,000,000 packages of apples and pears have arrived in London this season from Australia.

CHICKEN SHORTCAKE

2 cups pastry flour (or 1 1/2 cups of bread flour)
3 teaspoons Magic Baking Powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons shortening
1 egg
5/8 cup water

Sift dry ingredients; add shortening and mix in thoroughly with a steel fork; add beaten egg and sufficient water to make soft dough. Roll or pat out with hands on floured board. Cut out with large floured biscuit cutter, or half fill greased muffin rings which have been placed on greased baking pan. Bake in hot oven at 475° F. about 12 minutes. Split and butter while hot, and fill with hot creamed chicken. Makes 6 shortcakes.

Try Miss Alice Moir's light, flaky

Chicken Shortcake

"I always use and recommend Magic Baking Powder," says Miss Alice Moir, Dietician of one of Montreal's finest apartment-house restaurants. "Magic combines efficiency and economy to the highest degree. Besides, it always gives dependable results."

In whole-hearted agreement with Miss Moir, the majority of Canadian dietitians and cookery teachers use Magic regularly. And 3 out of 4 Canadian housewives use Magic because it gives consistently better baking results.

No wonder Magic outsells all other baking powders combined! Favour your family with Chicken Shortcake—made with Magic as Miss Moir directs. Note its delicate flavour, its feather lightness!

Free Cook Book—When you bake at home, the new Magic Cook Book will give you dozens of recipes for delicious baked foods. Write to Standard Brands Ltd., Fraser Ave. and Liberty St., Toronto, Ont.

Risks Life For Dog

Dog lovers in the West Hartlepool district of England are raising a fund for a gift to be presented Mrs. Rhoda Jobson, a young woman of Trimdon, as an award for saving a dog's life. While out with a party of hikers, she climbed an almost perpendicular cliff more than 30 feet high at Blackhall, and rescued a stray whippet dog.

Light Metal Invented

A new metal, which has been invented by a British firm, is lighter than aluminum, as strong as cast-iron, cheaper than brass, impervious to sea-water, and can be bent while cold. It is already in use by the Admiralty.

Great Changes Wrought By Development Of Electricity During The Past Fifty Years

It is only fifty years since the first electric generating plant began operations. New York has been celebrating the occasion half a century ago when Edison pressed a button and a new era had begun. Even those who have lived in the transition and on through the "wiring" period are scarcely aware how much a part of life electrical power has become, how great is the change that has been wrought. It is only on those rare occasions when the power goes off that the lesson is forced home.

A modern business office takes its elevators, its telephones, telegraphs and light as a matter of course. The citizen takes electrical power, transportation and street lighting as all in the regular scheme of things. Even the average household starts the day with an electrically run coffee percolator and toaster, and as a matter of course counts on the electric iron, hot water heater, vacuum cleaner and so on, until the bed side light is snapped off.

Electricity is taking over bigger and bigger responsibilities in industry. Last year, in the United States, industry and business consumed a total of 52,162,000,000 kilowatt hours of electrical energy for lighting and power.

It has transformed the theatre by making lighting effects (heretofore undreamed of) possible, and in all the ramifications of cinema. It has become a handmaid to therapeutic medicine; and agriculture, starting with the portable utility motor, is more and more claiming its aid. Already it is a recognized factor in the poultry business, and enough knowledge is now available to realize that it might and doubtless will be still more widely used.

There is a promise of large scale domestic heating and of cooling apparatus. Refrigeration, both for industry and home use, is now common. The day of a "private sun" with ultra violet rays guaranteed for every home is on the programme.

Ships in the air and ships at sea know electricity, from the simplest lighting devices to intricate machinery which seems almost to have occult power.

In all this development, circling the globe, it is a point worthy of note that this community stands out as the electric capital of the world. Winnipeg uses more electricity per capita than any other city, and it can obtain it more cheaply for both domestic and industrial use.

In an era definitely opened as something new in history, a time when a great conquest of nature has increased man's power a thousandfold, it should mean something to Manitobans in general and to this City in particular, that it is not only among those in the vanguard but that it is leading the procession.—Winnipeg Free Press.

Canadian Flier Gives U.S. Crowd Thrill

Takes To Parachute When Inverted "Plane Loses Wing

Kenneth Unger, Canadian Great War flier, provided 10,000 spectators at the Hadley Airport New Brunswick, N.J., with an unscheduled thrill. He was entertaining with an exhibition of stunt flying when the left wing of his "plane" was torn away while he was flying upside down at an altitude of 3,500 feet. Unger jumped from the machine with his parachute and landed unharmed. Just before leaping he turned off the ignition switch and probably prevented a serious fire when his "plane" crashed near some houses a half mile away.

Preparing School Lunches

Pamphlet Provides Some Interesting and Useful Suggestions

A very interesting pamphlet, No. 148, "School Lunches," has just been issued by the Dominion Dairy and Cold Storage Branch. Keeping the school lunch appetizing, attractive and satisfying is always a problem in the rural community. This little pamphlet contains a very interesting analysis of the subject and provides some interesting and useful suggestions which serve a real need throughout rural Canada. A copy may be obtained without charge on application to the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Automobiles On Farms

Seventy-One Per Cent. Of Passenger Cars In Saskatchewan In Rural Areas

No less than 71 per cent. of the passenger automobiles in Saskatchewan in 1931 were on farms; 56 per cent. in Prince Edward Island; 54 per cent. in Alberta; 49 per cent. in Manitoba, and only 13 per cent. in British Columbia, and 18 per cent. in Quebec. Although Ontario had the greatest number of passenger automobiles on farms of all the provinces the percentage within the province was only 25.7 per cent.

Miniature Tower of Babel

The nursery of the Canadian Pacific liner "Montrose" sounded like Babel in miniature during the voyage ended recently. Five unaccompanied children speaking three different languages were passengers. Left to right: Irene Pump, German, three and a half; Jacqueline Des Forges, six, Arlette Des Forges, three and a half, French; Zdzislaw, six, and Zofia Clerka, three and a half, Polish. The children were all joining parents who preceded them to Canada. The four stewardesses speak 10 languages between them.

Every Canadian Pacific liner has a number of stewards and stewardesses who are fluent in foreign tongues. They are distinguished by coloured collars in the case of stewards, and a narrow ribbon (such as may be seen at either end of the picture) on the snowy caps of the stewardesses. Unaccompanied children are not an unusual problem, either. Never a voyage passes but what some motherly stewardess has in her care an unaccompanied child who may be anything from six months to 16 years of age. And they seem to have more fun than many of the adult passengers.

Grading Is Desirable

Establishment Of Grades Desirable In Co-Operative Marketing

The current issue of the "Economic Annalist," official organ of the Federal Agricultural Economics Branch, is the source of the following statement:

"The establishment and maintenance of grades is particularly desirable in the case of co-operative marketing. The grower of a good commodity should receive a premium for the extra care and efficiency involved in producing a superior product."

Canadian farmers or business men handling farm products who are looking for new markets must bear in mind that their products will meet competition from other areas and performance other countries. It will pay to study trade requirements and competitive practices and to build a sales policy around a product sold on the basis of standardized grades."

Wild Amusement

A commercial traveler, having mislaid his connection, found himself with two hours to spend in a small village. He approached an ancient porter.

"Got a picture house here?" he asked.

"No."

"A billiard hall or library?"

"No."

"Well, how on earth do you amuse yourselves?"

"We go down to the store of an evening. They've just got a new baconslicer."

Outlook Improved

Railway Man Notes Better Conditions In The West

A marked improvement in the outlook of the people of the prairie provinces following the recently harvested grain crops of substantial proportions was noted by George Stephen, vice-president in charge of traffic, Canadian Pacific Railway, who returned to Montreal from an extending trip through the west.

A very much smaller section of the three prairie provinces was this year affected by drought, and in districts where no grain at all was harvested last year there was this year some reward, even if of modest proportions in certain districts, for grain growers gathered, he said. Relief to be supplied by the government of Saskatchewan this year would be small compared with that necessary during the past two seasons, he said.

Having Hard Time

According to figures issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics three electric railways ceased to operate during the year. Twenty of the 32 systems operating in Canada failed to earn operating expenses, a number of them showing heavy deficits. Radial railway systems have a hard road to travel, with steadily decreasing patronage, and the outlook for increased business anything but promising.

Discontent That Is Hurtful

Forgetting Past Losses Wiser Than Dwelling On Them

It's "Follyannism" run mad that says things are comfortable for most people. Nobody with eyes in the front of his head subscribes to any such spineless doctrine. Further, there is a discontent with present circumstances that is altogether healthy. The slough of Despond must be wriggled through if one is not to be choked with its slime. The man who is not nauseated by the nastiness of his situation is a "poor fish."

At the same time there is a discontent that is hurtful in every way. It cuts the nerve of manly effort. It sours the spirit. It chills the heart. It fills the throat with fog. It magnifies every woodchuck till he looks like a lion. All this is to the bad.

Times may be hard, but they are not all hard. Why not cast up the side of our account where lie our advantages? It is a good policy to forget our losses long enough to make a good use of what we have. It is wise to forget the irrevocable past by rising from our dumps to get at what we may win today, thereby making a stepping stone for tomorrow.

The hero was not a hero only but also a philosopher, who said:

"It is not too late to seek a new world to strive, to seek, to find and not to yield."

This is the spirit that grasps the nettle, clears the eye, steadies the heart and makes men free. A man is only master of his destiny when he is master of himself.—St. Thomas Times-Journal.

The Pedestrian's Paradise

Tangier, Virginia, Has No Vehicles Of Any Kind

A restless few of the 1,500 inhabitants of Tangier, Virginia, may tire of their confinement to that island town in Chesapeake Bay where there are "no automobiles, no horses and no wagons," and where indeed there is but a single street, though many canals, which are crossed by bridges with gaps in the middle to permit the passage of fishing boats. The pace of community intercourse in such a place can not be swift. No ebb and flow of catapulating vehicles, forcing pedestrians to leap out of their skins. No vile contamination of the atmosphere with carbon monoxide and the fumes of burned oil. No rush and roar of insensate mechanisms in the careless custody of every Tom, Dick, and Harry. In short, no artificial and dangerous acceleration of the pulse of life.

Making Leather At Home

New Methods Make Home Tanning Now Fairly Easy

In these days when advantage has to be taken of every possible economy interest is revived in the home tanning of leather. A number of inquiries as to how this can be done have been received by the Publications Branch of the Department of Agriculture, and to meet the need a special circular has been prepared. This deals with the several processes of fleshing, liming, dehairing, tanning, testing, softening and finishing leathers and hides of different kinds. While the old tanning bark method involved a long period of time and a lot of work many new methods make the home tanning of leather fairly easy.

India imports 40,000,000 pounds of cotton yearly.

When the population of Canada was officially counted last year records were also taken of the number of live stock of different kinds in the Dominion, and these records are now available. They show that there are 3,115,582 horses. The horse is therefore still far from extinct notwithstanding the rivalry of the automobile and the truck. The average number of horses per farm reported is 5.3 compared with 5.7 in 1921. Much the largest number of horses is in the province of Saskatchewan, which almost reaches the million mark. Alberta is second with 732,000, and Ontario third with 577,000.

Milch cows on Canadian farms number 3,510,000 as against 3,228,000 in 1921, an increase of 8.72 per cent. Ontario has the largest cow population with 1,114,000, but British Columbia shows the most rapid increase, the number of milch cows in that province having increased by more than 53 per cent. in the last ten years. The average number of milch cows per farm is now 6.3 per cent. compared with 5.4 per cent. at the previous census. It is noteworthy that the greatest actual increase in cows has been in the Prairie Provinces—Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

Other cattle total 4,498,000, which is a falling off of about 12½ per cent. since 1921. The only provinces which show an increase are Quebec and British Columbia, although the largest number of cattle are in Ontario.

Sheep are raised on 130,000 farms and the total number is 3,622,000, an increase of 13.18 per cent. in ten years. The largest sheep population is in Ontario, but the most rapid increase in numbers is in British Columbia. The number of swine is 4,667,000, an increase of 40 per cent. since the last census. The most rapid increase has been in Alberta, although the largest number are in Ontario, with Alberta second and Saskatchewan third. The poultry population totals over 65,000,000 and in the last ten years has increased by 51.62 per cent. The largest number of poultry are in Ontario but the most rapid increase is in British Columbia.

Taster For Produce Firm

Cleveland Man Has Held Job For Forty-Five Years

It's lucky Edward Price likes olives, for he earns his living by eating them. For 45 years he has lived in a world of olives. Amid long rows of casks and barrels, stacked one atop another, Price goes about his work of tasting and smelling every consignment of olives to a produce firm at Cleveland, Ohio.

Recently a shipment of seven carloads of olives from Seville, Spain, augmented the stock of the company to the largest in its history—and Price must taste an olive from each container.

The seventy-one-year-old taster eats no breakfast so that his sense of taste may always be on edge for his daily task. At noon he eats but lightly of soup and rice pudding. "I do my heavy eating at the evening meal," he smiled. "Healthy! Say I'm as healthy at 71 as I ever was. I like to eat. Besides olives, I must sample preserves, mustard, peanut butter and extracts but that doesn't spoil my appetite for supper."

"My uncle in Venice is sending me a gondola. How am I going to play it?"

"You don't play a gondola; you wear it over your shoulders like a shawl."

Quebec Winter Sports

Vive le Carnaval! Vivent les sports d'hiver! In these few words may be summed up the spirit of Quebec in winter-time. Here for many years have gathered lovers of winter sports and frolics from all parts of the western hemisphere.

The ancient capital of Canada is the American continent's metropolis for skiing, ski-joring, ski-jumping, tobogganing, bob-sledding, skating, snow-shoeing, dog-team driving, curling, and hockey, during the winter months, and in addition has a unique attraction to offer the visitor in February when the International Dog Sled Derby annually takes place.

Winter-sports activities radiate from the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec's famous hostelry, where Jack Strathdee will again be winter-sports director. This season he has a new attraction to offer during the Ice Pageant, February 12 and 13, when 24 girl members of the Toronto Skating Club will perform an ice-dance to be known as the "Danse Moderne". This will be a veritable "Ziegfeld production on ice."

In all about two hundred skaters will take part in this ever attractive and beautiful Pageant.

A record list of entries is promised for the Dog Sled Derby this season. Arthur Beauvais, driver of the Chateau team, announces that he will have a better team than ever. His new huskies were bred at Caughnawaga, the Indian reservation near Montreal. At the Dog Derby, February 20, 21, and 22, the visitor will see such famous mushers as St. Goddard, winner of last year's Derby; Seppala, Norwegian hero of many an epic drive; Frank Dupuis, and many another well-known figures in action for three days over a 123 mile course, mushing 41 miles a day.

Three internationally famous ski-ing instructors will be on the staff of the Chateau Frontenac this winter. They are Ivid Nelson, Hans Gunnarson, and Orrie Higgs, of Revelstoke, British Columbia. Burnett Burke formerly of the Montreal Amateur Athletic Association, will be instructor at the Chateau's skating rink.

DEMISE OF CHARLES KABESH COMES AS GREAT SHOCK TO TOWN AND DISTRICT

Charles Kabesh died in our local hospital early Friday morning, October 14th. He was taken suddenly ill with an attack of appendicitis and was rushed to the hospital, but too late for a successful operation. The whole community was shocked by this sad bereavement.

The deceased was born in Schuyler, Nebraska, U.S.A., on January 6, 1881. He came to Wetaskiwin, Alberta, in 1905, where he resided until moving to his homestead, 12 miles south west of Viking, in 1905. I later he was married to Miss Juliet Ritland.

The funeral service was held on Monday afternoon in the Community Hall, Viking, where a large congregation gathered to express their esteem for the deceased and sympathy with the bereaved. Rev. J. W. Bainbridge of the United Church officiated, and delivered a suitable address of sympathy and exhortation. "Jesus Lover of My

Viking, October 20, 1931.

Soul," and "Nearer My God to Thee," were the hymns sung. Interment took place at the Viking cemetery.

The deceased is survived by his widow, and two sons—Louis and John, as well as two brothers and five sisters.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. O. Fitzpatrick, Lar Kelly, N. C. Graham, Frank Stupka, John Golka and Bud Evans.

A profusion of floral tributes attested to the esteem in which the deceased was held, among which were contributed a wreath from the family; Mrs. Powell and family; brothers and sisters; Mr. and Mrs. Hanson and family; Mr. and Mrs. J. Skelitzky; Mr. and Mrs. O. Widdall; A. Forsa and family; Scandinavian Ladies' Club; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Peterson and family; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bratard; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ritland; Mr. and Mrs. Lars Ritland; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Thompson.

Irma Young Peoples' Club Elect Slate of Officers

A meeting of the Irma Young Peoples' Club was held in the church Wednesday evening, October 19, at 8 o'clock, to organize a society. We are pleased to state that quite a number was in attendance. The officers were elected and are: M. A. Gamble, president; Miss W. Taylor, vice-president; Miss C. Miles, treasurer; W. Taylor, pianist; Miss M. P. Fitzpatrick as reporter. The president, vice-president, Miss E. Barber and Mr. McGrath are on the program committee and very interesting meetings will be outlined for the benefit of the young people in attendance.

We are glad to have Mr. Gesson and Mr. Reels to supervise and give us their good advice and opinions to organize a society.

The meetings will be held each week—Sunday evening immediately following the regular service with one meeting on the third Wednesday of each month for the social meeting.

Miss Carter, Bride-Elect, Honored at W.A. Meet

The members of the W.A. spent an enjoyable afternoon on Tuesday Oct. 18, at the home of Mrs. Bert L. n. when Miss Nellie Carter, a bride of this month, was the guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower. After a short business meeting, Mrs. Fred Higginson, the president, with a few well chosen words, presented Miss Carter with a basket loaded with gifts from her fellow members of the W.A. The bride-elect thanked each member in an appropriate manner, her mother also warmly welcomed and thanked all present for their kindness. Towards the close of the meeting, Mrs. Price Jones sang most sweetly, "O Perfect Love," while the members afterwards sang, "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden." The singing, "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" brought a delightful afternoon to a close after which a dainty lunch was partaken of.

Snowstorm and Icy Road Is Cause of Accident

Viking, October 20, 1931.

Monday afternoon's snowstorm, and the icy road, was the cause of putting Mrs. Verne Bentley in the Viking hospital with shock and bruises, and resulted in minor painful injuries to Mr. and Mrs. Ingvald Leeland and Irvine Leeland, when the car they were riding in skidded off the ice and snow covered road at the Iron Creek bridge, 12 miles south west of Viking.

Mrs. Bentley is not seriously injured, shock and bruises necessitating her stay in hospital for a day or so. The other passengers of the car were fortunate in escaping serious injuries.

The accident happened at about 5 o'clock Monday evening, and Mr. Leeland, who is well known as a careful driver, was proceeding cautiously at the time, respecting the condition of the road, but in spite of this his efforts were fruitless. The car skidded off the road and was brought to a stop after striking a pole and turning over on its side.

Brown's garage now have the car, having brought it in from the scene of the accident.

Excellent Plans Made Ensure L.A. Bazaar Grand Affair

The committee in charge are all busy with preparations for the annual bazaar to be held in the church on Saturday, November 6th.

A good line of fancy work, aprons, and novelties are being planned for. Then don't forget the "Pot Luck" supper to follow the bazaar. It will be in the basement of the church, from 5:30 to 8 p.m., served in cafeteria style. The menu will read something like this—Baked beans, potato scallop, macaroni and cheese, fried chicken, or cold meat, then with any of the above you can have rolls, pie, pickles and salad—all for 25c. a plate. Should your appetite require an extra helping of pie or anything, you can have that too for 5c extra.

So keep in mind the bazaar and supper and save up a few nickels to start your Christmas shopping and have a dandy supper at such a low price.

"The teacher complains that you have not had a correct lesson for a month," said a mother to her little son in a neighboring school. "Why is it?" "Well, she always kisses me when I get them right," he replied.

After a study of the question on a careful male observer makes the following report: A man can fog all of the women some of the time, and some of the women all of the time, but he can't fool the same woman the same way all of the time.

"I have never gotten what I deserve," said one of the boy high school students. "You always were lucky," replied one of the girls.

"Look here," said a local father, "I am sure that boy of ours has taken some money out of my pocket." "How can you say such a thing," replied his wife, "You might as well accuse me." "Not at all," he replied, "It wasn't all taken."

"Why have you got a sign up 'Under New Management'?" asked a friend of a young business man in a neighboring town. "Why, haven't you heard I've just been married?" replied the young fellow.

"Just remember that I wasn't anxious to marry you," said a local young lady to her husband during a slight difference the other day. "And I even refused you six times," "Yes, and then my luck gave out," he replied.

Heard at the poker party, "My wife can't take a joke." "You must be mistaken." "How so?" "Well, she took you, didn't she?"

Viking Legion Sponsor Poppy Day Campaign

Viking, October 20, 1931.

At a meeting of the Viking branch of the Canadian Legion held Monday evening, the local Legion decided to again sponsor the sale of poppies this year on Remembrance Day, November 11th.

The objects of the campaign are as follows:

1. To pay tributes and bring again to the memory of all citizens the men who sleep beneath the poppies in France, that due remembrance is shown in some tangible form on November 11th each year.
2. To provide employment for disabled ex-service men engaged by the government in Veteran's shops.
3. To create a small fund in the district where poppies are sold which can be supplied as relief for any deserving case.
4. To help provide funds for taking care of genuine adjustment cases of widows and dependents and disabled returned men.

Every poppy and wreath has been made by some disabled soldier.

A want ad. in this paper does big work at small cost. Now is the time to sell, trade, or exchange for something else.

Viking, October 20, 1931.
 In the account of the teachers' convention at Vegreville last week in the Vegreville Observer, we note the following:

"Mrs. Clarke, primary teacher at Viking, presented a paper on Primary English. Her demonstration of methods and materials should prove of much worth to all teachers with pupils in the primary division. Mrs. Clarke very ably showed the method of handling 'Rhyme teaching' as contrasted with the common 'parrot learning' of rhymes and pointed out to the teachers the beauty and pleasure which are bound up in the nursery rhymes. Her treatment of the subject was complete, interesting and valuable. The speaker stated that 'every lesson is an English lesson' in the primary grades. The child does but little written composition and the oral habits which the child forms will reflect in his later work."

"In the afternoon of Thursday the teachers were given an opportunity of seeing the rural school of Miss Olive Gilpin (Aplimb S.D.) at work. The class had been transported by Mr. Tuck and a model classroom set up. Miss Gilpin in a very able manner, demonstrated the procedure she follows in her school-room from 1:30 p.m. to 3 p.m., including presentation work and seat work. This feature of the programme was very profitable to the teachers and all present were warm in the praise of the display."

Origin Of Tennis

Game Played Half Century Ago Was Very Different

There are more than 20,000 public and club lawn tennis courts in Great Britain now, and the number of tennis players goes up every year by leaps and bounds. Yet the game is barely fifty years old. The original lawn tennis was called Sphairistike. Half a century ago it was played on courts of hourglass shape with a net six feet high in the middle. The rackets were rather like queerly-shaped shrimping nets and the game was pure bat and ball. It was played by ladies with wasp waists who held up their long skirts in one hand, and men whose costume consisted of tight knickerbockers, striped stockings, walking boots, jerseys and bowler hats. The original lawn tennis balls were of plain rubber, but later, the covered ball came into fashion. In its early days it was usually coloured and often ornamented with fancy stitching.

Winter May Be Cold

New York Man Bases Prediction On Law Of Averages

The winter will be long and cold, as Jant H. Scarr, U.S. Government meteorologist, sizes it up; and then again it may not. It all depends on whether the winter follows the law of averages or gets bull-headed.

The last five winters the meteorologist explained, have been mild. Each warm winter, under the law of averages, brings a cold winter just that much nearer.

One cannot, however, be sure. Mr. Scarr suggested that those who are interested might observe the temperature during October. In 80 per cent. of recorded cases warm Octobers have been followed by warm winters.

NURSE LOSES 7 LBS.

"I weighed 145 lbs.," writes a nurse, "when I bought the bottle of Kruschen Salts which I have just finished. I have taken a good half-teaspoon in a glass of hot water every morning. Now I weigh 138 lbs., a loss of 7 lbs. I am very glad to have lost weight, especially without trouble."—M.H.R. (Trained Nurse).

Unlike most salts, Kruschen isn't simply a laxative. When you take Kruschen Salts you not only stimulate your liver and kidneys to function naturally and perfectly, but you supply your internal organs, gland, nerve and fibre, in the body with Nature's own revitalizing and rejuvenating minerals. Get a bottle of Kruschen Salts today, and take one-half a teaspoon in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast.

Before the bottle is empty you'll feel years younger—eyes will brighten—step grow sprightlier—nerves steadier—you'll sleep sound, enjoy your meals, and after a hard day's work you'll be ready for wholesome recreation—one million women already know all this.

New First Sea Lord

Sir Ernie Chatfield Was Beatty's Flag Captain During War

As Flag Captain to Lord Beatty in the "Lion" and the "Queen Elizabeth" all through the war, Sir Ernie Chatfield the new First Sea Lord, served in the three principal actions of the Heliogland, the Dogger Bank and Jutland. He is a gunnery specialist. He was a man of the moment in the crisis at Jutland. The "Indefatigable" had been sunk, the "Queen Mary" had gone up in flames, the "Lion" was in flames too. Then a tremendous salvo struck the "Princess Royal" and she too vanished. A signalman reached the "Lion's" bridge where stood Vice-Admiral Beatty, as he then was, "Princess Royal" blown up, sir," he said, Beatty turned to his Flag Captain, saying, "Chatfield, there seems to be something wrong with our ships today. Turn two points to port." That meant two points nearer the enemy—and it meant, too, that the crisis of the battle was surmounted.

The British battle cruisers began to assert ascendancy over the enemy and our ships received no further serious injury. Full testimony to the accuracy of the British gunnery has been given in German accounts of the battle.

Eat Celery For Health

Ranks Higher Among Vegetables as a Source Of Mineral Supply

It is doubtful if any of the common vegetables can compare with celery as an aid to general health. Most physicians agree that as a blood purifier and for ridding the body of toxic substances, this vegetable is in a class by itself.

Like most leafy vegetables, the purpose of celery in the diet is not to provide heat or energy, but rather to furnish the vitamins, minerals and other secondary food so essential to good health. As a source of minerals, celery ranks high among the vegetables, being particularly rich in lime and magnesium. For this reason it is a great blood regulator and tends to combat any tendency to excess acidity. Celery is also a valuable source of vitamins, being one of the best for vitamin "B."—Dominion Fruit Branch.

Forty-one years ago in Korea were planted Canadian apple saplings by a Canadian medical missionary, and today the apple trade is one of the most flourishing in Korea.

Chinese Have Weird Cures

Very Rarely Will They Take Medicine Used By Westerners

The recent case of Toy Fook, a Chinese boy in America, who when sick begged for broth made from the heart of a wildcat, invites attention to the queer native "cures" depended upon by the dwellers in the Chinese section of American cities. Imports into the United States from China include horns, bones, hair, catfish and tallow, but so far as customs records show, no wildcat's hearts.

The art of the Celestial apothecary is a furtive one in this country. Rarely will Chinese confide in a westerner, particularly when there is some suspicion that habits and customs which seem to them perfectly natural may be likely to transgress the curious maze of occidental laws with which they find themselves surrounded.

Their use, almost adoration, of the ginseng root, is well known. That harmless herb is looked on by the Chinese as a general tonic and, in fact, as a panacea. Ginseng, with Chinese, is as inevitable as chopsticks.

Orange peel ranks next to ginseng as a universal remedy. An infusion of tiger bones is believed to incite courage. The eyebrows of a toad, some Chinese believe, make an excellent snuff. Soup made from the paws of a bear is "indicated" for stomach disorders.

Fighting Days Are Over

Jellicoe's Flagship To Become A Gunnery Practice Vessel

Two of Britain's famous fighting ships will soon leave Portsmouth for the last time. The "Iron Duke," Earl Jellicoe's flagship in the Battle of Jutland, is to become a gunnery practice vessel. Most of her fittings, already removed when she was originally ordered scrapped under the London Naval Treaty, have been retrieved.

The cruiser "Terrible," which is leaving for Newport, Monmouthshire, for breaking up, became famous in the South African War, when her guns and naval ratings were rushed at the last moment into Ladysmith and helped Sir George White to sustain the siege for several months.

After lying 60 years in the River Thames on loan from the Admiralty, the training ship "Arcturion" has finally been condemned. The vessel will be replaced by the German sailing ship, "Peking," which will be renamed the "Arcturion." The condemned "Arcturion" was the last British vessel to proceed into action under full sail. This action took place during the Crimean War.

Bid On Mansion As Joke

English Builder Owns Estate He Does Not Want

Herbert Wightman, a jobbing builder of Wilford, England, owns a peer's house he does not want just because he entered into a joke. Wightman bought for $25 the mansion called St. Heliers, at Nottingham, once the home of the late Lord Trent. He said he went to the sale to buy some land, and his bidding for the mansion was a joke with a friend. "When the bidding rose from $18 to $21, my friend said, 'Go on, Herbert, bid $25.' I did so," said Wightman, "and another hammer came down, and that is how I bought St. Heliers." The house, which cost $30,000, stands in spacious grounds, with tennis courts and a garden, and is in good repair, but there is a ground rent of $300 which must be paid whether St. Heliers is occupied or not.

Ontario Buys Western Cattle

Purchases Made For Finishing For The Export Market

Ontario farmers are being encouraged to buy feeder cattle from Western Canada for finishing for local or export markets under a plan of financing announced by the Ontario Government Department of Agriculture. It is stated that arrangements have been completed with the Canadian banks whereby Ontario farmers will be able to borrow money with which to purchase feeder cattle from the Prairie Provinces. It is expected that this arrangement will result in increased supplies of well-finished cattle suitable for export to the British market. The plan goes into operation immediately and an official of the Ontario Department of Agriculture has been sent to Western Canada to supervise purchases.

Starts On Long Hike

Viennese Architect Proceeds On Foot To Visit World's Grain Show

Jules Salaman, a young Viennese architect, has already started out on a trip to visit the World's Grain Fair in Regina next year. But he needs an early start, for he is walking to the Saskatchewan capital and is earning his way by singing and playing his clarinet.

A picturesque figure clad in brown walking, shorts, khaki shirt, high laced boots and a felt hat decorated with a cockade of flowers, Salaman has arrived in England and is now touring the British Isles before boarding a ship to cross the Atlantic. He is a student of architecture and an excellent vocalist.

The itinerant musician hopes to sing some of his Viennese songs for the king and queen as a finale to his British tour. He is a member of the Academie de Chanteurs de Vienne and has sung under the directorship of Bruno Walker and Felix Weingartner.

Woman Detectives On Scotland Yard Force

Valuable Aid In Locating Women Connected With Bandit Gangs

Having proved that they can keep a secret and know how to "mix" with criminals, women are being added to the detective force of Scotland Yard, in London, England. For months they have been secretly trained at Scotland Yard, and they have not divulged a word to anybody. Three are now "on the strength" of the Criminal Investigation Department. It is expected that another 20 or 30 will complete their training shortly, and will work with men detectives. All are young, and have been chosen largely for their capacity for forming friendships. Definite evidence has been obtained by the Yard that there are clever women criminals associated with modern bandit gangs, and the women detectives will aid in locating them.

CANADIAN WOMEN FIND DUSTING DISTASTEFUL

Dust cloths going into discard; Unpleasant to use; a bother to Wash

APPLEFORD WONDER PAPER HAS GREAT VOGUE

Of all household tasks, that of dusting is the least appealing to the majority of women.

However, this condition, like many another connected with housework, is undergoing radical change. In a great many Canadian homes the women are discarding dust cloths entirely, and are using Appleford Wonder Paper instead, because it actually dusters—as it cleans—as it polishes, does a better and much quicker job than the old dust cloth ever did.

This new, and extremely modern Wonder Paper, is made from clean rags, and soft paper pulp, treated in a scientific way with a high-grade furniture polish, and absorbs dirt instead of spreading it.

Appleford Wonder Paper comes in handy-size packages, twenty-five large sheets for twenty-five cents. You crumple a sheet into a soft wad and go over the surfaces requiring attention. Then when one side is soiled or worn, turn the Wonder Paper inside out. After you have given a quick and lasting finish to furniture and woodwork, you can still use Wonder Paper on the floors, if you wish.

And when you are through, there's no old duster to shake out or wash. Throw the soiled Wonder Paper away and you've completed the most tiresome part of housework in half the time and with half the effort.

Wonder Paper is made by the makers of the famous PARA-SANT Heavy Waxed Paper in the Green Box.

THE HOUSE OF DREAMS-COME-TRUE

Jean's thoughts flashed her. Her shoulders bent and covered a little as though beneath a physical blow.

There had been a time—oh! very long ago, it seemed, before Destiny had come with her snufflers and quenched the twin flames of love and happiness—a time when dimly, as in some exquisite dream, she had heard the sound of little voices, felt the helpless touch of tiny hands. Perhaps Nesta, too, had heard those voices, felt those clinging hands, while her soul quickened to the vision of a future which might hold some deeper meaning, some more sacred trust and purpose, than her empty wayward past.

And she, Jean, had stood between Nesta and the fulfillment of that dream, forever bidding her entrance to her woman's kingdom.

She saw it all now with a terrible clarity of vision, understood to the full the two alternatives which faced her—to go with Blaise, as he implored, or to send him—her man, the man she loved—back to Nesta. There was no longer any middle course.

A voice sounded in her ears.

"No true happiness ever came of running away from duty. And if ever I'm up against such a thing—a choice like this—I hope to God I'd be able to hang on, to run straight, even if it half-killed me to do it!"

The words sounded so clear and distinct that Jean half raised her head to see who spoke them. And then, in an overwhelming rush of memory, she recognized that it was no actual voice she heard but the mental echo of her own words to Nick—to Nick at the time when he had been passing through a like fire of fierce temptation.

How easily, in her young, untried ignorance, the words had fallen from her lips as she had urged Nick to renounce his fixed resolve! Such eminently wise and excellent counsel! And how little—how crassly little had she realized at the time the huge demand that she was making!

She had spoken as though it were comparatively easy to reject the wrong and choose the right—to follow the stern and narrow path of duty, through the mists and utter darkness that enshrouded it, up to those shining heights which lie beyond human sight—the outposts of Eternal Heaven itself.

Easy! Oh, God! . . . When Jean uncovered her face and lifted it to meet the set gaze of the man beside her, it was wan and ravaged—the face of one who has come through some fierce purgatory of torment.

"Well?" he demanded, his voice roughened because he found himself unable to steady it with that strained and altered face upturned to his. "Well? Are you going to send me back to Nesta?"

She did not answer his question. Instead, she put another.

"Do you think she—loves you?"

"Nesta? Yes. As far as her sort can love, I believe she does."

Jean nodded, as though it were the answer she had expected.

"Blaise . . . I'm going to send you back to her. I'm sure now. I know. It's the only thing we can do . . . We must say goodbye—altogether—never see each other again."

"Never?" The word came draggingly.

"Never. It—it would be too hard for us, Blaise, to see each other."

"Yes," he answered slowly. "It would be too hard."

They were both silent. The minutes ticked away unregarded. Time had ceased to count. This farewell was till the end of time.

"Blaise!" All the resonance had gone out of her voice. It sounded flat and tired. "You—you will go back to her?"

"Yes, I will go back."

She stretched out her hands flutteringly.

"Then go . . . go soon, Blaise! I—I can't bear very much more."

He opened his arms, then, and she went to him, and for a space they clung together in silence. For the last time he set his lips to hers, held her once more against his heart. Then slowly they drew apart, stricken eyes gazing lingeringly into each other's as stricken, and presently the closing of the terrace door told her that he had gone, and that she must turn her feet to the solitary path of those who have said farewell to love.

Henceforth, she would be alone—living or dying, quite alone. It was long past midnight when Claire returned from the Dover House.

She found Jean sitting beside the grey embers of a burnt-out fire, her hands lying folded upon her knee, her eyes staring stonily in front of her in a fixed, unseeing gaze.

Claire called to her softly, as when one wakes a sleeper.

"Jean!"

Jean turned her head.

"So you have got back?" she said dully. She stood up stiffly, as though her limbs were cramped. "Claire, I am going away—right away from here—to Beirnefels."

"Why?" asked Claire.

She waited tensely for the answer.

"Blaise has been here. He asked me to go away with him. I've sent him back to Nesta."

The short, stilted sentences fell mechanically from her lips. She spoke exactly like a child repeating a lesson learned by rote.

Claire's eyes grew very pitiful.

"And must you go to Beirnefels alone?" she asked quietly. "Won't you take me with you?"

"Will you come?"—incredulously.

"Of course I'll come. I shouldn't dream of letting you go by yourself."

And then, all at once, Jean's tired body, exhausted by the soul's long conflict, gave way, and she slipped to the ground in a dead faint.

CHAPTER XXXV.

The Eve Of Departure

A week later Jean sat at the foot of the stairs and surveyed with faint amusement the motley collection of trunks and suit-cases which thronged the hall.

She was still looking pale and worn, strung up to face her self-imposed exile from the country which now held everything that was dear to her, but no enormity of sorrow would ever blind Jean for long to the whimsical aspect that attends so many of the little things of daily life.

"What a lot of useless lumber we women carry about with us wherever we go!" she commented. "Five—six—seven packages to supply the needs of two solitary females—and Heaven only knows how many brown paper parcels will be required at the last moment for all the things we shall find we have forgotten when the time actually comes to start."

Claire, standing on the flight of stairs above and viewing the assemblage in the hall from over the top of the banister rail, giggled helplessly.

"Yes, they do look a lot," she admitted. "However"—hopefully—"there'll be plenty of room for them all when we actually get to Beirnefels."

"Oh, plenty," agreed Jean. "But we've got to convey them half across Europe first—two lone women and one miserable maid who will probably combine train-sickness and homesickness to an extent that will totally incapacitate her for the performance of her duties."

At this moment the front-door bell clanged violently through the house, as though pulled by someone in a tremendous hurry. Claire hastily withdrew her head from over the banister rail and disappeared upstairs, while Jean relinquished the accommodation offered by the bottommost step and sought refuge in the nearest of the sitting-rooms, closing the door stealthily behind her.

A moment later Tucker, who had caught sight of her hurriedly retreating figure, reopened it and announced imperturbably:

"Mr. Burke."

Jean greeted him with surprise, but without any feeling of embarrassment. So much had happened since the day she had eluded him on the Moor, events of such intimate and tragic import had swept her path, that the unexpected meeting failed to rouse any feeling either of anger or dismay. Burke, and everything connected with him, belonged to another period of her existence altogether—to that glorious care-free time when it had seemed as though life were a deep, inexhaustible well bubbling over with wonderful possibilities. Burke was merely a ghost—a revenant from that far distant epoch.

"I'm in time, then?" he said, when he had shaken hands.

"In time? In time for what?"

Well Children

"Occasionally I give each of my five children BABY'S OWN TABLETS—I am sure that is why they never have any serious illness," writes Mrs. George Morley, Yarker, Ont. This sound advice is passed on to all Mothers. BABY'S OWN TABLETS can be given with complete safety to the youngest and most delicate child—see analyst's statement in each 25c package. Recommended by mothers for teething troubles, simple fever, colic, digestive disorders, constipation, fretfulness. Easy to take as candy.

Ancient Toads

Amphibians, 1900 Years Old, Released From Wall In Greece

A Pennsylvania toad that survived 33 years in a cannonball is only a runner-up, William Alexander Campbell, professor of art and archaeology at Wellesley College, has revealed.

Professor Campbell said he was supervising the excavation of a Greek theatre in Corinth, Greece, this summer, which according to coins found on the site must have been erected about the first century, A.D.

Suddenly two Greek toads popped out of a hole just made by a pickaxe in the hands of a workman. The 1000-year-old toads, leaping amphibians, shuddered, blinked and hopped off among the ruins, Professor Campbell said.

Another Hunger Striker

Descendant Of "King Tut" To Starve Until Valuable Relics Released

A descendant of the Egyptian King Tut-ankh-Amen, who for years has claimed the Tut-ankh-Amen treasures from the Egyptian Government, has decided to emulate the example of Mahatma Gandhi, in India, and begin a hunger strike for the possession of the valuable relics.

In a letter to the newspapers, the descendants of the Egyptian Pharaohs says he intended to proceed to the historic temple of Edfu on October 11, the date on which Tut-ankh-Amen died thirty centuries ago. There he will hold to his fast until death unless the authorities hand over the golden treasures.

Little Helps For This Week

"In all thy ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct thy paths." — Proverbs iii. 6.

In "pastures green"? Not always; sometimes He Who knoweth best, in kindness leadeth me.

In weary ways, where heavy shadows be.

So whether on the hill-tops high and fair I dwell, or in the sunless valleys, The shadows lie, what matter, He is there.

—Henry H. Barry.

The Shepherd knows what pastures are best for His sheep and they must not question or doubt, but trustingly follow Him. Perhaps He sees that the best pastures for some of us are to be found in the midst of opposition or of earthly trials. If He leads you there you may be sure they are green for you and you will grow and be made strong by feeding there.—H.W.S.

HEADACHE

Made in Canada

● Frequent headaches mean too much acid. Neutralize the acids with Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It ends your headache because it removes the cause. Take a little whenever a coated tongue or sour stomach or sluggish bowels warn you of an acid condition. Take it when you've eaten too heartily, or after any meal that "disagrees." Be sure it is genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia, in this bottle.

ALSO IN TABLET FORM: Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets are now on sale at drug stores everywhere. Each tiny tablet is the equivalent of a teaspoonful of genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

Quick RELIEF from pain

A lot of things can cause a headache or other pain, but there is one thing that will always give you relief! Just take a tablet or two of Aspirin—your suffering ceases. Relief comes instantly, regardless of what may have been making your head throb with pain.

Aspirin is harmless—cannot depress the heart. So there's no use waiting for a headache to "wear off." It is useless to endure pain of any kind when you can get Aspirin. It is a blessing to women who suffer regular systemic pain; to men who must work on, in spite of eye-strain, fatigue or neuralgia.

Learn its quick relief for colds; for neuritis, rheumatism, lumbago. Be sure to get Aspirin—and not a substitute. All druggists sell Aspirin tablets. "Aspirin" is a trade-mark registered in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Green were visitors in Edmonton last week. They enjoyed the ball game in which the leg leaguers played the pick of the Edmonton players.

W. McAthey, secretary of the village, paid a visit to Edmonton over the week-end.

Chas. Wittman, of Wainwright, has been transferred from the Wainwright branch of the Bank of Montreal to the Viking branch, and occupies the position of ledger keeper.

Mrs. Neumeyer and son, Lawrence, left for Wetaskiwin on Saturday, where they will make their future home.

Mr. Stock was guest of honor at a meeting of the Apron table of the ladies' auxiliary of the United Church which was held at the home of Mrs. George Brown, Monday evening. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Wemp and Mrs. Chiswell, and delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Ash in presenting Mrs. Stock with a small gift from the Apron table, expressed the regret of the group in losing so valued a member and extended their wishes that she and her family might have every success in their new home. Mrs. Stock made a very suitable reply.

The King Edward Hotel has inaugurated breakfast à la carte for the benefit of their guests and the general public. Under this system, you order just what you desire and pay for that much only.

Mrs. Nellie Hooper was down from Edmonton on Friday in attendance at the auction sale of her goods and chattels which was held on that day. The sale was quite a success considering the present conditions. Mrs. Hooper is making her home in the city.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the United Church wish to express their appreciation of the patronage that the public accorded their annual dinner at the church hall last Saturday evening. The consensus of opinion of those "Kiss Me Again" is the title of the who partook of the dinner was that it surpassed any similar effort of the ladies, and that's going some!

The two little girls who were injured when struck by Thos. White's car near Holden last week are recovering from their injuries.

Olaf Venstob has just returned to Calgary after spending a couple of weeks with relatives and friends in Viking and Daysland. He holds a prominent position with the Swift Canadian Company in Calgary.

Dr. Simmons, of the University staff, was a guest at the Dr. and Mrs. Haworth home over the week end.

The licensed optometrist and eye-sight specialist, Thos. G. Dark, who has 17 years optical practice to his credit, will be at Viking Drug Store, Saturday, October 29, from 1:30 to 4 p.m. Mr. Dark makes a specialty of attending to children's eyes, and the charges are the same as the city—no extra charges whatsoever.

A meeting of the Viking U.F.A. Local will be held in Finch's office, Wednesday, October 26th, at 2 p.m. All members please attend. Interested visitors welcome.

Mrs. J. A. Barker and family attended the chicken supper at Kinsella's Monday night.

The ladies of the Anglican W. A. are holding their annual sale of work in the United Church hall on Saturday, October 29, at 3 o'clock. There will be a home cooking stall and afternoon tea will be served from 3 to 6. Don't forget the Bran tub for the kiddies. The ladies from the country will also have a stall.

The next talkie billed at the Keifer Movies at the Elks' Hall, on Thursday evening, October 27. Press reports are very high in their praise of this war picture which is a musical comedy, told in a whirlwind of laughter, dancing, gorgeous girls, and gowns; officers in brilliant reds, blues and gold lace, ladies of fashion, etc., all in the colors of life. It should have an appeal to all who enjoy a good musical comedy. Usual prices. Other feature films will be shown that will undoubtedly make this program one of the best shown here this season.

The Roseberry and Alma Mater Ladies' Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Frickleton on Thursday, Oct. 27th.

The Roseberry and Alma Mater Ladies' Aid are holding a chicken supper and miscellaneous sale on Friday, November 4th at Roseberry. There will be a program in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frickleton, Mr. and Mrs. McLeod drove to Hardisty on Thursday afternoon to attend the funeral of Mr. Frickleton's grandmother who passed away on Tuesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frickleton, Sr.

Keep in mind the ladies' aid bazaar and supper on Saturday, November 5.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Engrt Sr. have added a nice addition of three rooms to their home at Crescent Hill.

A number of members from the Wainwright Rebecca Lodge attended a special meeting at the Irma Lodge on Wednesday night.

Mrs. Arnold is a visitor in the city this week.

Mr. Foxwell made a business trip to Chauvin and back on Wednesday. The "Pot Luck" supper is a new feature of the ladies' aid bazaar this year—and it's only 25c a plate.

CRESCENT HILL U.F.A.

Crescent Hill held a big get-together of the U.F.A. and friends on Wednesday night of this week. There was a full attendance of members and plans were made for some very interesting meetings to be held during the winter.

The regular meetings will be held in the school on the second Monday of each month.

W.A. of ANGLICAN CHURCH

The next W.A. meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Yeend, hostesses Miss Thurston and Mrs. Pryce Jones, at 2:30 p.m., November 1st.

DANCE AT CRESCENT HILL

There will be a dance in the Crescent Hill school on Friday night of next week, October 28. There will be good music, good eats and a good time in store for all. Admission, 35c.

Goose Shoot Saturday, Walters' Blacksmith Shop

Viking, October 20, 1931. A goose shoot will be held on the road near the former Walters' blacksmith shop in the east part of town on Saturday, October 22, commencing at 1:30 p.m. Bring your own rifle if you wish; if not, a good 22 repeater rifle will be furnished.

Here's a chance to get a goose for a small price—if you can hit the bull's eye. Come and join in this real sport.

TO THE RATEPAYERS OF MUNICIPAL DISTRICT OF KINSELLA NO. 124

The Council have this summer passed a By-Law remitting certain penalties and making discounts on the taxes due the M. D. and have instructed me to insert a notice in the paper drawing the ratepayers' attention to this, and urging the ratepayers to do their utmost to get their taxes paid, as the Municipality is having difficulty in financing the School Districts and it is only by the co-operation of the ratepayers that the Schools will be able to carry on. If you wish to save 5 percent of your current taxes, pay them before the 1st day of November, and also if you pay your arrears before the 15th day of December you will make a considerable saving.

The Council realize the difficulty that the Farmers have in financing themselves but are asking them to make a special effort and try and get these taxes or at least part of them paid.

B. H. GREEN, Secretary-Treasurer Municipal District of Kinsella No. 124.

NOTICE RE UNEMPLOYMENT RELIEF.

The Provincial Government have issued a notice concerning unemployment relief, where it is necessary to grant it, and the Council of M. D. No. 124 have instructed me to give an extract for the guidance of the ratepayers.

A person before applying for unemployment relief, must qualify as to Residence.

Residence shall mean: An applicant must have resided in the Municipality and have been self-supporting for a period of one year before the Municipality is responsible for Unemployment Relief.

B. H. GREEN, Secretary-Treasurer Municipal District of Kinsella No. 124.

VALLEY U.F.W.A.

The regular monthly meeting of the Valley U.F.W.A. was held at the home of Mrs. T. A. O'Neill on October 13th. The minutes were read and the various items of business discussed. There were several reports from the sick committee on their work since the last meeting. The present donated by Mrs. Pendleton was drawn for and won by Mrs. Heron. The "Smith Family" contest caused much excitement and was won by Jenny James. The next meeting to be held at Mrs. Pendleton's on November 10.

CANADIAN LEGION WILL HOLD BIG ARMISTICE DANCE

An Armistice dance will be held at Keifer's Hall at 8:30 p.m., November 11th.

Coulman's famous orchestra will furnish the music. Admission, 35c each, with a free lunch.

No children admitted unless accompanied by their parents.
